composé un mauvais numéro.

5.3 On speech recognition

This help option only concerns those activities which use speech recognition. It will provide all the advice necessary to successfully complete the exercises using speech recognition.

6 Advice on improving your pronunciation

6.1 Waveform and pitch curve graphs

Each word and sentence has a corresponding waveform and/or pitch curve graph. The waveform graph traces the amplitude of the voice in relation to time, whereas the pitch curve graph displays the frequency variations of the voice.
You can see the recording of the word or sentence you pronounced in graph and curve forms and compare it with the model. These graphs enable you to work on and improve your pronunciation and intonation.

6.2 Detecting pronunciation errors

If you make a pronunciation error in a sentence pronunciation exercise, it will be automatically detected by TELL ME MORE® and highlighted in red.
If you would like to improve your pronunciation of the highlighted word, click on the Pronounce the words in the sentence icon .

Note:
The Spoken Error Tracking System (S.E.T.S.®) does not work if the sentence is pronounced particularly badly or, on the contrary, when the whole sentence is well pronounced.

6.3 Scoring

TELL ME MORE® evaluates your pronunciation on a scale of 1 to 7 (7 being the highest score possible), according to the difference between your pronunciation and that of the model. The score awarded to you by TELL ME MORE® is displayed by a column of rectangles. Each rectangle represents one point. The rectangles are green if your pronunciation merits a score higher than the level of difficulty you selected. The rectangles are grey if your pronunciation merits a score below the level of difficulty you selected.

The results of all your attempts are displayed in the Score box. There is no limit to the number of attempts you can make.
To improve your score, repeat the exercise several times and try to imitate the intonation and rhythm of the model.
You can listen to both the model and the recording of your own pronunciation as many times as you like: click on the loudspeaker to the left of the graph of which you would like to hear the recording.

6.4 Comparative listening

Compare your own recordings to improve your pronunciation.
Click on the corresponding column of rectangles to see the graph and hear the recording of the pronunciation attempt you wish to compare. By comparing your recordings and graphs to those of the model, you will be able to analyse your pronunciation faults and pinpoint your errors.

6.5 Pronunciation of a particular word

If you would like to focus on a specific word in the sentence, TELL ME MORE® allows you to isolate this word by clicking on the Pronounce a word in the sentence icon.
Try to pinpoint the difference between your pronunciation and that of the model. Then, practise pronouncing the word in isolation before trying to say the whole sentence again.

6.6 Phoneme pronunciation exercise

In the Phonetics Exercise, detailed 3D animations show you the articulations necessary to pronounce each phoneme. Seeing how each phoneme is produced will allow you to memorise and reproduce the sound more easily.
Choose the phoneme you would like to work on by clicking on the corresponding line.

A computer-generated animation will appear showing both mouth and tongue positions, in profile and head-on, for each phoneme. The phonetic symbol of the phoneme (based on the International Phonetic Alphabet) is written in green at the bottom left of the animation. Try to reproduce the articulations corresponding to the phoneme.
Click on the Play button to start the animation and display a short explanation.
When you have finished practising a word, click on the Next word containing the phoneme arrow to practise another word containing the same phoneme. Then, click on the Sentence practice with this word icon to practise saying this word in a sentence. Click on the Pronunciation of the Word icon to return to pronouncing the word.

6.7 Listening and pronunciation practice outside TELL ME MORE®

Thanks to the Audio CD function, you can continue to practise your oral comprehension and expression outside TELL ME MORE®. To know more about this, go to section 4.1.6 Audio CD.

Note:
This function is only available in the Guided Mode.

7 Answering your questions
